

Johnny on the Spot, Inc. Acquires Van Sant Portable Restrooms in Quest to Bring Industry Best Service to Entire Area

Old Bridge, NJ - October 14, 2008 -- Johnny on the Spot, Inc. recently announced the acquisition of Van Sant Portable Toilets, a leading portable toilet and service company located in Bayville, NJ. Van Sant provided portable restroom service to parts of central New Jersey but maintained a target service area encompassing much of Southern New Jersey. This acquisition marks the second in as many years with Rent-A-John, located in Sparta, NJ, becoming a branch of Johnny on the Spot, Inc. brand in July 2006.

The acquisition was completed amidst turbulent economic times but was seen as an advantageous opportunity to build upon a solid reputation and penetrate a completely new market full of customers in demand of a quality portable restroom service. President of Johnny on the Spot, Inc., Jess Thompson, maintained a friendly yet competitive business relationship with Donald "Buddy" Van Sant. For many years the two often spent time together discussing tricks of the trade at various industry related expositions and continue to sustain accommodating relations through the acquisition phase.

For the past thirty-eight years, Johnny on the Spot, Inc.'s corporate mission has remained to provide unparalleled service to all customers renting portable sanitation units. The acquisition of Van Sant Portable Toilets allows for better efficiencies and greater range of service raising the bar on already high customer satisfaction.

With this new acquisition of the Bayville branch, Johnny on the Spot, Inc. now has a location in Southern, Central, and Northern New Jersey giving further evidence of Johnny on the Spot being, "New Jersey's Finest Portable Restroom Service." Customers outside of the Garden State can also reap the benefits of using Johnny on the Spot as service is also provided to the majority of the Metro New York Area as well as Eastern Pennsylvania. Although Johnny on the Spot, Inc. is one of the largest providers of portable sanitation service on the East coast, customers can be assured they will receive personalized attention from a professional staff aimed to please.

Johnny on the Spot, Inc. offers a full line of portable restroom products and services for construction sites and special events. In March of 2008 Johnny on the Spot, Inc. introduced temporary fencing to its offerings making it a great source of materials for job starts. Hosting a special event? Elite Coaches (a division of Johnny on the Spot, Inc.), offers luxury restroom trailers ranging from modest to magnificent in style and will be certain to please even the most discriminating of users.
